Sharon Violi was born and raised in Philadelphia, and has always been an avid supporter of Catholic education. Sharon's husband Frank had attended Our Mother of Consolation School growing up, and Sharon was thrilled to start her oldest daughter Lisa in kindergarten there in 1985. Her other two children, Joe and Laura, followed suit in 1987 and 1990 respectively.

Being a stay at home mom, Sharon devoted much of her time volunteering at the school. From serving on the Home & School Board, handling lunch duties, acting as homeroom mom, attending class trips and so on, she was constantly involved with OMC School. Sharon was also instrumental in helping establish the Gift Card Program. Sharon was so devoted to OMC that she eventually took a position in the parish office as a bookkeeper. Eventually she was promoted to Tuition Administrator. She has been employed with OMC for 25 years.

Sharon enjoys spending time at home with Frank and their yellow lab, Ella. She loves having her three children, their spouses and her six grandchildren over for Sunday dinner. She spends her free time babysitting her grandchildren, experimenting with new recipes, reading fiction, and taking long walks with Ella.

Tamika Nealy Farmbry is an Associate Broker with Elfant Wissahickon Realtors who earned her Associate Broker's license at Temple University. Tamika also earned her Master's degree in Strategic Leadership from Neumann University, and started a long career of involvement in the Historical African-American fraternity and sorority system. Her participation in leadership and professional organizations extends to membership in the NAACP, National Association of Women Executives and Wives Behind the Badge. She and her husband, Aaron, a Philadelphia Police Sergeant, are lifelong residents of Mt Airy; they are members of Saint Raymond of Penafort Parish. Tamika and Aaron's two children, Aaron and Tiyana, graduated from OMC Parish School.
